[S. 905]

AN ACT

For the relief of Margaret A. Ushkova-Rozanoff and Mrs. L. A. Ushkova.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provisions of the ninth category of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (8 U. S. C. 136 (d)), Margaret A. Ushkova-Rozanoff may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence provided she is found otherwise admissible under the provisions of the immigration laws: Provided, That there be given a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General, in such amount and containing such conditions as he may prescribe, to the United States and to all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof holding the United States and all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof harmless against Margaret A. Ushkova-Rozanoff becoming a public charge; and that the immigration visa issued to Mrs. L. A. Ushkova prior to December 31, 1951, shall be regarded as a valid visa: Provided, That at the time of her application for admission she is accompanying her grandchild, Margaret A. Ushkova-Rozanoff.

39 Stat. 875.

Approved February 18, 1952.
