AN ACT

August 7, 1956 [H. R. 3957]

For the relief of Pauline H. Corbett.

Pauline H. Corbett.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Pauline H. Corbett, Charleston, West Virginia, the sum of $38,317.19. Payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Pauline H. Corbett against the United States on account of severe personal injuries and disabilities sustained by her as a result of an overdosage of streptomycin which she received while a patient at the Tokyo Army Hospital, Tokyo, Japan, from November 2 to November 28, 1950, as a civilian employee of the General Headquarters, Far East Command, United States Army, engaged in a nonappropriated fund activity. Since the said Pauline H. Corbett was a civilian employee of the General Headquarters, Far East Command, who was paid from nonappropriated funds, she is not eligible for the benefits of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, as amended. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 7, 1956.
