JOINT RESOLUTION

June 27, 1957
[H. J. Res. 185]

To implement the convention between the United States of America and Norway, which entered into force on November 9, 1948, for disposition of the claim against the Government of the United States of America asserted by the Government of Norway on behalf of Christoffer Hannevig.

Whereas on March 28, 1940, a convention was entered into by the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Norway for the disposition of the claim of the Government of Norway on behalf of Christoffer Hannevig against the Government of the United States of America, the validity of which claim is denied by the Government of the United States of America; and Whereas the convention was duly ratified and the respective instruments of ratification were duly exchanged on November 9, 1948, on which date the convention entered into force; and 62 Stat. 1798.

Whereas, by said convention, provision was made for the exchange between the respective agents for the two Governments of certain pleadings and briefs as therein described and defined; and

Whereas, by said convention, it is provided that in the event that, after the exchange of such pleadings and briefs, the two Governments should be unable to agree upon a disposition of the claim, or any portions thereof, through diplomatic discussion, the claim shall be referred to the Court of Claims of the United States of America, for adjudication of said claim, or any unsettled portions thereof, by the said Court of Claims, and for appeal to and review by the Supreme Court of the United States of America, under and pursuant to the terms and conditions of said convention; and

Whereas the two Governments have been unable through such diplomatic discussion to agree upon a disposition of the claim: Therefore be it

Norwegian claim.
Adjudication.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Court of Claims shall hear and adjudicate the said claim under and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the said convention. The proceedings in the said court shall be initiated within six months after the approval of this resolution.

SEC. 2. Upon appeal by either the Government of the United States of America or the Government of Norway, or both, the Supreme Court of the United States of America shall, under and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the convention, review the decision of the United States Court of Claims.
