Edgardo V. Del Rosario and others.
8 USC 1182.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Edgardo Villanueva Del Rosario, Kathleen A. Higginbotham, Lieselotte Elisabeth Parsick, and Paul Sevigny may be issued visas and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if they are found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act.

Waltraud Wiche and child.
8 USC 1101 note.

SEC. 3. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Waltraud Wiche, the fiancée of Sergeant First Class Thomas M. Davis, a citizen of the United States, and her minor child, Thomas Milton Wiche, shall be eligible for visas as nonimmigrant temporary visitors for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Waltraud Wiche is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Sergeant First Class Thomas M. Davis and that they are found to be admissible under all of the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act, except that section 212 (a) (9) of that Act shall be inapplicable in the case of the said Waltraud Wiche. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Waltraud Wiche and her minor child, Thomas Milton Wiche, they shall be required to depart from the United States, and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Waltraud Wiche and her minor child, Thomas Milton Wiche, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Waltraud Wiche and her minor child, Thomas Milton Wiche, as of the date of the payment by them of the required visa fees.

8 USC 1182.

SEC. 4. The exemptions provided for in this Act shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Departments of State and Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.
