Public Law 85-684

JOINT RESOLUTION

August 20, 1958
[H. J. Res. 221]

Granting the consent of Congress to the several States to negotiate and enter into compacts for the purpose of promoting highway traffic safety.

Whereas from year to year there has been an increase in the number of accidents and deaths on the streets and highways of the United States; and

Whereas this increase in highway traffic deaths and accidents presents a serious national problem; and

Whereas to aid in meeting this problem there is need for the development of nationwide highway traffic safety programs, including, but not limited to, establishment of uniform traffic laws, improvement in driver education and training, and coordination of traffic enforcement; and

Whereas cooperative effort and mutual assistance on the part of the States offers the greatest hope of satisfactorily dealing with this national problem: Therefore be it

Interstate compacts.
Highway safety.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the consent of Congress is hereby given to any two or more of the several States to enter into agreements or compacts—

(1) for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the establishment and carrying out of traffic safety programs, including, but not limited to, the enactment of uniform traffic laws, driver education and training, coordination of traffic law enforcement, research into safe automobile and highway design, and research programs of the human factors affecting traffic safety, and

(2) for the establishment of such agencies, joint or otherwise, as they deem desirable for the establishment and carrying out of such traffic safety programs.
