AN ACT

For the relief of Choe Kum Bok.

August 23, 1958
[S. 3665]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Choe Kum Bok, the fiancée of Jack Putz, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor and may be admitted to the United States for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find (1) that the said Choe Kum Bok is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Jack Putz and (2) that she is found otherwise admissible under the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Choe Kum Bok, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Choe Kum Bok, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Choe Kum Bok as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.
