AN ACT

For the relief of Matthew M. Epstein.

June 4, 1958
[S. 2498]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Matthew M. Epstein of Washington, District of Columbia, the sum of $281.87. Such payment shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Matthew M. Epstein against the United States for reimbursement of personal property losses incurred by him as a result of an accident which occurred on October 10, 1956, when a twelve-hundred-pound weight fell from a tower clock of a United States Government building: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Matthew M.
Epstein.

AN ACT

For the relief of Doctor Thomas B. Meade.

June 4, 1958
[H. R. 1466]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of funds of the District of Columbia, to Doctor Thomas B. Meade, of Brooklyn, New York, the sum of $159.87. Such sum represents reimbursement to the said Doctor Thomas B. Meade for repairing, at his own cost, his automobile which was damaged while being towed by the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia, on September 10, 1954: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Dr. Thomas B.
Meade.
