AN ACT

For the relief of Charles T. Crowder.

August 14, 1958
[H. R. 1283]

Charles T. Crowder.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Charles T. Crowder of Suffolk, Virginia, the sum of $5,948.69. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of Charles T. Crowder against the United States arising out of losses incurred by him as a result of his failure to include in his bids for Post Office Department Star Route contracts an amount equal to the Commonwealth of Virginia's gross receipts road tax on operations covered by such contracts: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Ralph N. Meeks.

August 14, 1958
[H. R. 1317]

Ralph N. Meeks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Ralph N. Meeks, Jacksonville, Florida, is hereby relieved of liability to refund to the United States all or any part of the sum of $17,458.59. Such sum represents the amount of retired pay allegedly overpaid to the said Ralph N. Meeks (a retired naval officer) for the period beginning November 1, 1946, and ending October 31, 1954, while he was employed by the United States in a civilian capacity at the naval air station, Jacksonville, Florida, and was receiving compensation and retired pay from the United States at a combined annual rate in excess of that permitted by law. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.
