AN ACT

May 13, 1959
[H. R. 2975]

To validate payments of certain quarters allowances made in good faith, and pursuant to agreements by authorized officials, to employees of the Department of the Navy, but which were subsequently determined to be inconsistent with applicable regulations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all payments of quarters allowances made after January 1, 1949, and before August 16, 1953, to civilian employees of the Department of the Navy on duty in London, England, are hereby validated. Any employee or former employee of the Department of the Navy who has made repayment to the United States of any amount so paid him as a quarters allowance is entitled to have refunded to him the amount so repaid. Any appropriation that was available for the payment of salaries of civilian employees of the Department of the Navy at any time during the years 1949 through 1953 is available for the payment of the refunds authorized by this Act.
