Private Law 86-230

AN ACT

For the relief of the estate of Willard Phillips.

September 22, 1959
[H. R. 3782]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the estate of Willard Phillips, Coalinga, California, the sum of $10,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of such estate against the United States for compensation for the death of the said Willard Phillips, who was drowned in the Cumberland River near Woods Ferry Landing, Gallatin, Tennessee, on August 7, 1954, as the result of an accident involving a United States Corps of Engineers river inspection boat, the Clermont. Such claims are not cognizable under the tort claims procedure as provided in title 28, United States Code: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 22, 1959.

AN ACT

For the relief of Park National Bank.

September 22, 1959
[H. R. 5733]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Park National Bank, Knoxville, Tennessee, the sum of $194. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of such bank against the United States arising out of the refusal of the Secretary of the Treasury to make payment in the original amount of $194 on a United States Treasury check drawn in favor of Joseph Orton Smith, private, United States Army, dated September 30, 1955, which, before being cashed by such bank was fraudulently raised to the amount of $494: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 22, 1959.
