Jackson, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, is hereby relieved of all liability to repay to the United States the sum of $1,384.67. Such sum represents the amount which he was required to pay for the loss of money from registered mail while employed as a carrier in the United States post office at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, any amounts paid by the said William B. Jackson in reduction of the indebtedness referred to in section 1 of this Act or withheld from amounts otherwise due him because of that indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of James F. Conroy.

James F. Conroy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to James F. Conroy, Boston, Massachusetts, the sum of $199.25. Such sum represents the amount of the judgment for which the said James F. Conroy was held liable on November 1, 1957, in the courts of the State of Massachusetts, as the result of an accident which occurred during October 1952, and which involved a Government vehicle being driven by the said James F. Conroy in the course of his duties as an employee of the United States Post Office Department, at Milton, Massachusetts. Such sum shall be paid only on condition that the said James F. Conroy shall use such sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay such judgment in full: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
