bury, Massachusetts, are hereby relieved of all liability to repay to the United States the sum of $1,030 representing the total of allotment payments made to the wife, Mrs. Sarah E. Green, in the period from April 1, 1942, through October 31, 1945, inclusive, which have been ruled to have been overpayments because only two deductions were made from his Army pay in accordance with the authorization he executed directing that the proper deductions be made from the pay of the said Aaron Green, Junior, in order that a class E allotment would be paid to his wife. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

For the relief of Patrick W. Gowan, David Dooling, Harlie L. Mize, James H. Blaes, and William L. Perkins.

Patrick W. Gowan and others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to pay, out of current appropriations available for the payment of severance pay, to Patrick W. Gowan, who was discharged from the United States Navy on June 30, 1957, and to David Dooling, Harlie L. Mize, James H. Blaes, and William L. Perkins, who were discharged from the United States Navy on June 30, 1958, respectively, an amount equal to the difference between (a) the amount of severance pay which would have been paid to each such person upon his discharge from the United States Navy if the computation of such severance pay had been based upon his actual commissioned service in the United States Navy, and (b) the amount of severance pay actually paid to him.

For the relief of Gerald M. Cooley.

Gerald M. Cooley.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Gerald M. Cooley, San Carlos, California, the sum of $679.93. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of Gerald M. Cooley against the United States for back wages due him from the Cooley-Cain Aircraft Corporation under the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1936, commonly referred to as the Walsh-Healey Act: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
