AN ACT

For the relief of John I. Strong.

John I. Strong.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John I. Strong, Maitland, Florida, the sum of $2,013.92. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said John I. Strong against the United States for compensation for damage caused to citrus trees and other property owned by him on October 30, 1952, when two jet aircraft of the United States Air Force collided in midair and one of them fell and exploded on his property. Such claims are not cognizable under the tort claims procedure as provided in title 28 of the United States Code: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
