AN ACT

For the relief of Sylvester L. Gardner.

September 21, 1959
[H. R. 7225]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Sylvester L. Gardner, lieutenant, United States Navy, retired, [redacted], is hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the sum of $9,789.81. Such sum is the aggregate amount of compensation received by the said Sylvester L. Gardner incident to his employment in a civilian capacity from July 24, 1956, to February 6, 1959, both dates inclusive, at the United States Naval Air Station, Alameda, California, in violation of the Act of July 31, 1894, as amended (5 U.S.C. 62), relative to the holding of more than one office, without knowledge on his part of such violation. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be allowed for all amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

Sylvester L. Gardner.

28 Stat. 205.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Sylvester L. Gardner, a sum equal to the aggregate of the amounts (if any) which have been repaid by him to the United States, or which have been withheld by the United States from amounts otherwise due him from the United States, by reason of the liability of which he is relieved by the first section of this Act: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 21, 1959.
