Public Law 86-637

AN ACT

To amend section 303(c) of the Career Compensation Act of 1949 by imposing certain limitations on the transportation of household effects.

July 12, 1960
[H. R. 12570]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) section 303(c) of the Career Compensation Act of 1949, as amended (37 U.S.C. 253(c)), is amended by adding the following new sentence after the first sentence thereof: "However, no transportation of the household effects (except that not to exceed one thousand pounds of unaccompanied baggage may be transported by commercial air carrier under regulations to be issued under the authority of the Secretary of Defense, which regulations shall be uniform as far as practicable) of a member of any uniformed service may be made by commercial air carrier at an estimated overall cost exceeding the estimated overall cost of the transportation thereof by other means unless an appropriate transportation officer has certified in writing to his commanding officer that the household effects to be so transported are required for use in carrying out assigned duties, or are necessary to prevent undue hardship, and other means of transportation will not fulfill these requirements."

Armed Forces.
Transportation of household effects.
63 Stat. 813.

(b) This Act shall take effect on the first day of the second month beginning after the date of enactment.

Effective date.

Approved July 12, 1960.
