AN ACT

For the relief of Daniel C. Turner.

Daniel C. Turner.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Daniel C. Turner, of Cromwell, Connecticut, the sum of $268. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all the claims of Daniel C. Turner against the United States arising out of the destruction of his personal property in a fire in a Government-owned building at Yakutat, Alaska, in August of 1954, while he was an employee of the Fish and Wildlife Service: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
