AN ACT

For the relief of Aladar Szoboszlay.

Aladar Szoboszlay.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision contained in section 202 of the General Government Matters Appropriation Act, 1960 (73 Stat. 161), prohibiting the payment of compensation from appropriations contained in that or any other Act to officers or employees whose post of duty is in the continental United States, and who are not citizens of the United States, payments for services rendered by Aladar Szoboszlay, as an employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, contrary to the citizenship prohibition, are validated and the said employee shall not be required to refund the amounts thereof. Furthermore, any service rendered by said employee during the period October 4, 1959, through October 16, 1959, for which he was not compensated on account of the citizenship prohibition cited above shall be paid for out of current appropriations available.

AN ACT

For the relief of Cora V. March.

Cora V. March.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Cora V. March, Washington, District of Columbia, the sum of $25,000 in reimbursement for expenditures of the said Cora V. March and her husband, the late General Peyton C. March, incurred by them over a period of many years in the performance of highly important services for the Government of the United States. These services were contributed by General March to the War Department and the Nation following his retirement in 1921 and included personal eye witness investigations abroad with reports thereon to the Secretary of War for the official use of the United States Government with respect to such matters as the military, financial, and economic conditions in Europe, the deployment of United States troops, and foreign relations of the United States with our allies and former enemy countries.
