Private Law 86-340

AN ACT

For the relief of John E. Simpson.

June 11, 1960
[H. R. 9106]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John E. Simpson is hereby relieved of liability to repay to the United States the sum of $2,400 which was paid to him for reemployment leave.

John E. Simpson.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said John E. Simpson an amount equal to all amounts paid by him to the United States, or withheld from his pay by the United States.

SEC. 3. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 4. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 11, 1960.

AN ACT

For the relief of John J. Finn, Junior.

June 11, 1960
[H. R. 9170]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John J. Finn, Junior, the sum of $437. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said John J. Finn, Junior, against the United States for reimbursement of medical expenses incurred by him as a result of an operation performed by an Army dentist on August 18, 1942, during which a surgical needle was left imbedded in his right jaw and was not discovered and removed until May 20, 1952. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

John J. Finn, Jr.

Approved June 11, 1960.
