AN ACT

For the relief of J. Butler Hyde.

September 6, 1960
[H. R. 6084]

J. Butler Hyde.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of the Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to J. Butler Hyde, Lowell, Massachusetts, United States mail carrier, the sum of $1,283.50. Such sum represents the aggregate amount of a judgment (consisting of $900 for personal injury and $383.50 for property damage) rendered against the said J. Butler Hyde in favor of Arthur W. Gendreau on account of an accident involving the said J. Butler Hyde and Arthur W. Gendreau on April 30, 1955, at the intersection of Westford and Chelmsford Streets, Lowell, Massachusetts. Such sum of $1,283.50 shall be paid to the said J. Butler Hyde only on condition that the said J. Butler Hyde shall use such sum, or such part thereof as may be necessary, to pay in full the amount of his indebtedness to the said Arthur W. Gendreau on account of such judgment: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 6, 1960.
