AN ACT

For the relief of Joseph Starker.

July 27, 1962
[H. R. 3383]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Joseph Starker, a regular carrier in the postal service at New York, New York, the sum of $30. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all the claims of Joseph Starker against the United States for reimbursement for a judgment obtained against him on November 6, 1958, by Murray Jamison for damages as a result of an accident which occurred while the said Joseph Starker was on duty as an employee of the Post Office Department: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000. Joseph Starker.

Approved July 27, 1962.
