Public Law 87-538

July 18, 1962
[S. J. Res. 68]

JOINT RESOLUTION

Providing for the designation of the week commencing October 14, 1962, as "National Public Works Week".

Whereas public works facilities and services are of vital importance to the health and well-being of the people of this Nation, and

Whereas the members of Federal, State, and local units of government are responsible for and must design, build, operate and maintain the highway, water supply, sewage and refuse disposal systems, public buildings and other structures and facilities essential to serve the citizens of our country, and

Whereas such facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of the public works engineers and administrators of this Nation, and

Whereas the ability of governmental agencies to attract and retain competent persons to provide said facilities and services in the most efficient manner possible, is materially influenced by the people's attitude toward their public servants, and

Whereas it is in the public interest for the citizens and civic leaders of this country to become better acquainted with the public works needs and programs of their respective communities: Therefore be it

National Public Works Week.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the seven-day period commencing October 14, 1962, as "National Public Works Week", and calling upon the people of the United States to celebrate such week with activities and ceremonies paying tribute to the public works engineers and administrators of the Nation and the important work which they perform.

Approved July 18, 1962.
