"The term 'service mark' means a mark used in the sale or advertising of services to identify the services of one person and distinguish them from the services of others. Titles, character names and other distinctive features of radio or television programs may be registered as service marks notwithstanding that they, or the programs, may advertise the goods of the sponsor."

The fifteenth paragraph of said section, relating to use in commerce, is amended by changing the period at the end of said paragraph to a comma and adding the words "or the services are rendered in more than one State or in this and a foreign country and the person rendering the services is engaged in commerce in connection therewith."

The seventeenth paragraph of said section, relating to the meaning of the term "colorable imitation", is amended by changing "terms" to "term" and deleting the word "purchasers" at the end thereof.

The final paragraph of said section is amended by striking therefrom the word "commence" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "commerce".

Approved October 9, 1962.
