[S. 192]

For the relief of Master Sergeant Benjamin A. Canini, United States Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of section 2732 of title 10, United States Code, the Secretary of the Army is authorized and directed to receive, consider, and act upon any claims of Master Sergeant Benjamin A. Canini, United States Army, of Tacoma, Washington, against the United States, filed within one year after the date of enactment of this Act, for compensation for damages and expenses sustained by him arising out of the malfunction of the heating unit of his Government-assigned quarters at Evreaux-Fauville Air Force Base, France, on January 30, 1957, as if such claims had been filed in the time and manner provided in such section, the said Benjamin A. Canini having submitted a timely oral claim but having failed to file a timely written claim as a result of erroneous advice by Government agents. Nothing in this Act shall constitute an admission of liability on the part of the United States.

M. Sgt. Benjamin A. Canini.

[S. 1003]

For the relief of the Middlesex Concrete Products and Excavating Corporation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Middlesex Concrete Products and Excavating Corporation, of Woodbridge, New Jersey, the sum of $1,600, in full satisfaction of its claim against the United States for additional compensation for work performed at the direction of the Department of the Army in excess of the requirements of contract numbered DA-30-075-Eng-8601 for the construction of permanent family housing site work (outside lease lines) at Fort Wadsworth, New York, the Department of the Army being unable to pay such additional compensation because of the limitation on the expenditure of funds for such site work contained in section 505 of the Act of September 28, 1951 (12 U.S.C. 1748i).

Middlesex Concrete Products and Excavating Corp.
