JOINT RESOLUTION

April 17, 1964
[S. J. Res. 120]

Providing for the recognition and endorsement of the Seventeenth International Publishers Congress.

Whereas the United States has, for the first time, been accorded the honor of receiving several hundred delegates from more than twenty countries throughout the world in May and June 1965 to participate in deliberations on the challenges and opportunities of international book and music publishing: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress hereby extends its official welcome to the book and music publishers from abroad who will attend the Seventeenth Congress of the International Publishers Association in Washington, District of Columbia, May 30–June 5, 1965, under the sponsorship of the American Book Publishers Council, Inc., and the Music Publishers Association, Inc. The President is authorized and requested to grant recognition, in such ways as he may deem proper, to the International Publishers Congress, calling upon officials and agencies of the Government to provide such assistance, facilities, and cooperation as the occasion may warrant.

Seventeenth International Publishers Congress.
