Public Law 88-383

AN ACT

July 28, 1964
[H. R. 6237]

To amend section 503 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended, to authorize grants for the collection, reproduction, and publication of documentary source material significant to the history of the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 503 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (44 U.S.C. 393) be amended as follows:

Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, amendment.
64 Stat. 584.

Subsection 503(d) is amended by inserting after the words "United States." the second time it appears the following language: "The Administrator is authorized, within the limits of appropriated and donated funds available therefor, to make allocations to Federal agencies, and grants to State and local agencies and to nonprofit organizations and institutions, for the collecting, describing, preserving and compiling, and publishing (including microfilming and other forms of reproduction) of documentary sources significant to the history of the United States. Prior to making such allocations and grants, the Administrator should seek the advice and recommendations of the National Historical Publications Commission."

Historical documents, grants.

Section 503 is further amended by the addition of four new subsections as follows:

"(e) The Commission is authorized to establish special advisory committees to consult with and make recommendations to it. The members of such special advisory committees shall be chosen from among the leading historians, political scientists, archivists, librarians, and other specialists of the Nation. Members of such special advisory committees shall be reimbursed for transportation and other expenses on the same basis as members of the Commission.

Special advisory committees.

"(f) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the General Services Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1965, and each of the four succeeding fiscal years an amount not to exceed $500,000 each year for the purposes specified in (d) above: Provided, That such appropriations shall be available until expended when so provided in appropriation Acts.

Appropriation.

"(g)(1) Each recipient of grant assistance under subsection (d) of this section shall keep such records as the Administrator shall prescribe, including records which fully disclose the amount and disposition by such recipient of the proceeds of such grants, the total cost of the project or undertaking in connection with which such funds are given or used, and the amount of that portion of the cost of the project or undertaking supplied by other sources, and such other records as will facilitate an effective audit.

Records.
