Public Law 88-515

August 30, 1964
[H. R. 1341]

AN ACT

To require passenger-carrying motor vehicles purchased for use by the Federal Government to meet certain passenger safety standards.

Motor vehicles for Federal Government.
Safety standards.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no motor vehicle manufactured on or after the effective date of this section shall be acquired by purchase by the Federal Government for use by the Federal Government unless such motor vehicle is equipped with such reasonable passenger safety devices as the Administrator of General Services shall require which conform with standards prescribed by him in accordance with section 2.

Publication in Federal Register.

SEC. 2. The Administrator of General Services shall prescribe and publish in the Federal Register commercial standards for such passenger safety devices as he may require under authority of the first section of this Act. The standards first established under this section shall be prescribed and published not later than one year from the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 3. As used in this Act—

"Motor vehicle."

(1) The term "motor vehicle" means any vehicle, self-propelled or drawn by mechanical power, designed for use on the highways principally for the transportation of passengers except any vehicle designed or used for military field training, combat, or tactical purposes.

"Federal Government."

(2) The term "Federal Government" includes the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government of the United States, and the government of the District of Columbia.

Effective date.

SEC. 4. This Act shall take effect on the date of its enactment except that the first section of this Act shall take effect one year and ninety days after the date of publication of commercial standards first established under section 2 of this Act. If such standards as so first established are thereafter changed, such standards, as so changed, shall take effect one year and ninety days after the date of publication of such changed standards.

Approved August 30, 1964.
