[S. 49]

To provide for recognition by the United States of Alaska's one hundredth anniversary under the American flag, and for other purposes.

Alaska Centennial celebration.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress hereby recognizes the Alaska Centennial Celebration (hereinafter referred to as the "celebration") to be held at various locations in the State of Alaska during 1967, not only as an observance by the people of the forty-ninth State, but as an event of national significance.

Participation.

SEC. 2. (a) To implement the recognition declared in the first section of this Act, the President, through the Secretary of Commerce, may, in his discretion, cooperate with the Alaska Centennial Commission in the planning of the celebration and may, in his discretion, conduct a study to determine the manner in which and the extent, if any, to which the United States shall be a participant in and exhibitor at the celebration.

(b) The study authorized in subsection (a) may be made, in the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce, by personnel of the Depart-
