Public Law 89-284

October 22, 1965
[H. R. 9247]

AN ACT

To provide for participation of the United States in the HemisFair 1968 Exposition to be held at San Antonio, Texas, in 1968, and for other purposes.

HemisFair 1968 Exposition.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress hereby recognizes the international exposition, HemisFair 1968 (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "exposition"), which is being held at San Antonio, Texas, in 1968, as an event designed to enhance the existing brotherhood between new world nations, reaffirm common ties, increase understanding, and fortify world peace. The purposes of such exposition are to—

(1) honor and display the diversified cultures of Pan America, including the history, art, industry, commerce, and economic development of each of the nations of the Western Hemisphere, their interrelationships and common ties, and the contributions to their development from Europe, Asia, and Africa;

(2) encourage, coincident with the Olympic Games being held in Mexico City in 1968, tourist travel in and to the United States, stimulate foreign trade, and promote cultural exchanges; and

(3) commemorate the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of historic bilingual San Antonio, "the gateway of Latin America".

U. S. participation.

SEC. 2. (a) To implement the recognition declared in the first section of this Act, the President, through the Secretary of Commerce, shall cooperate with the State of Texas with respect to, and determine the extent to which the United States shall be a participant in and an exhibitor at, the exposition.

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO

(b) The President is authorized and requested, by proclamation or in such other manner as he may deem proper, to invite the several States of the Union and foreign countries to take part in the exposition.

Planning staff, report to Commerce Secretary and President.

SEC. 3. (a) In carrying out his duties under section 2(a) of this Act, the Secretary of Commerce shall establish a planning staff to conduct a study to determine the manner in which and the extent to which the United States shall be a participant in and an exhibitor at the exposition, and to report thereon to the Secretary of Commerce and the President.

Consultants, appointments and compensation. 63 Stat. 954. 5 USC 1071 note.

(b) (1) The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to appoint, without regard to the civil service laws and the Classification Act of 1949, such consultants and experts as he deems to be necessary to assist the planning staff established under subsection (a). Persons so appointed as consultants and experts, who are not otherwise employed by the United States, shall be (A) paid compensation at a rate not to exceed $100 per diem while engaged in the work of such planning staff, and (B) reimbursed for travel and other necessary expenses incurred while so engaged, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 73b–2) for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

60 Stat. 808; 75 Stat. 339, 340.

Planning staff, appointment and compensation.

(2) The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to appoint and fix the compensation of the members of such planning staff and such secretarial, clerical, and other staff assistants as may be necessary to enable such planning staff to perform its functions, without regard to the civil service laws and the Classification Act of 1949, except that no person appointed under this paragraph shall receive compensation at a rate in excess of that received by persons under the Classification Act of 1949 for performing comparable duties.

SEC. 4. The head of each department, agency, or instrumentality of the Federal Government is authorized—

Other Federal agencies, cooperation.

(1) to cooperate with the Secretary of Commerce with respect to determining the manner in which and the extent to which the United States shall be a participant in and an exhibitor at the exposition; and

(2) to make available to the Secretary of Commerce, from time to time, on a reimbursable basis, such personnel as may be necessary to assist the Secretary of Commerce in carrying out his functions under this Act.

Report to Congress.

SEC. 5. The President shall report to the Congress during the first regular session of Congress which begins after the date of enactment of this Act with respect to (1) the findings derived from the study referred to in section 3, together with such recommendations as the Secretary of Commerce and the President may deem appropriate concerning the most effective manner of representation of the United States at the exposition, and (2) the amount of appropriations which are necessary to accomplish such representation.

Appropriation.

SEC. 6. There are hereby authorized to be appropriated not to exceed $125,000 to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Approved October 22, 1965, 12:25 p.m.
