

Private Law 89-114

AN ACT

For the relief of A. T. Leary.

September 29, 1965
[H. R. 9854]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to A. T. Leary, of Beaufort, North Carolina, the sum of $3,778.02, representing the amounts paid by the said A. T. Leary to the United States as employee and employer taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act (chapter 22 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and subchapter B of chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939) by reason of services performed by him in connection with the operation of the Beaufort and Morehead Railroad Company. The fact that taxes were not payable by reason of such services, and that no coverage under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 was provided by reason of such services, was not discovered until the statutory period for filing claim for refund of such amounts had expired: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

A. T. Leary.

26 USC 3201 et
seq.
53 Stat. 175.45 USC 228a et
seq.

Approved September 29, 1965.

Private Law 89-115

AN ACT

For the relief of John Allen.

October 1, 1965
[H. R. 2694]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John Allen of Oakland, California, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $1,035.79, the amount of an overpayment of salary between January 10, 1960, and January 10, 1962. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

John Allen.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to said John Allen, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved October 1, 1965.
