AN ACT

For the relief of the John V. Boland Construction Company.

John V. Boland Construction Co.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any statute of limitation or the exhaustion of administrative remedies, jurisdiction is conferred on the United States Court of Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment on the claim of Boland Construction Company against the United States based upon contract numbered DA–25–066–ENG–480, with the United States Army Corps of Engineers, relating to the construction of a radar station at Kirksville, Missouri. Such suit may be instituted at any time within six months after date of enactment of this Act: Provided, That proceedings for the determination of such claim and appeal from and payment thereon, shall be in the same manner as in the case of claims over which the Court of Claims has jurisdiction as now provided by law.
