Private Law 89-335

AN ACT

For the relief of Donald I. Abbott.

October 4, 1966
[S. 2177]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Donald I. Abbott, Captain, United States Army, retired, is hereby relieved of all liability to repay to the United States the sum of $5,466.84, representing overpayments of civilian compensation received by him for the period from May 5, 1963, through February 22, 1964, while he was employed by the Army Map Service, Corps of Engineers, in violation of section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894, as amended (5 U.S.C. 62), which prohibited the employment of certain retired military officers in a civilian position, the said Donald I. Abbott having advised Government authorities of his retired status prior to his employment with the Army Map Service and been assured that such Act was not applicable to him. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Donald I. Abbott.

28 Stat. 205, 78 Stat. 492.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Donald I. Abbott, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved October 4, 1966.
