AN ACT

For the relief of the estate of Major John W. Roy, and for other purposes.

Maj. John W. Roy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the estate of the late Major John W. Roy (Army serial number [redacted]) is relieved of liability to the United States of all amounts erroneously paid to him as retired pay for the period from September 1, 1950, through October 31, 1958, through administrative error of the Department of the Army. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the widow of the said late Major John W. Roy an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, his widow, or his estate, or withheld from sums otherwise due any of them, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved November 2, 1966.
