Private Law 89-452

AN ACT

For the relief of Doctor Dean H. Gosselin.

November 6, 1966
[S. 2040]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress hereby finds that Doctor Dean H. Gosselin, a commissioned officer in the United States Public Health Service, was separated from active duty on July 6, 1964, that within three months of such date he was found to have a brain tumor which has totally disabled him, that the condition which has resulted in this disability was initially incurred while he was on active duty, and that the Public Health Service is now precluded by law from considering him for disability retirement.

Dr. Dean H. Gosselin.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Health Service may consider Doctor Gosselin for disability retirement in accordance with chapter 61, title 10, United States Code, and section 221(a)(2) of the Public Health Service Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 213a(a)(2)), based upon those disabilities, and the degree thereof, which existed at the time he was separated from active duty and which are determined to have been incurred in line of duty. If Doctor Gosselin is found eligible for disability retirement, his retirement and retired pay shall be effective from and after July 7, 1964.

70A Stat. 91.
10 USC 1201 et seq.
70A Stat. 619; 72 Stat. 1547; 73 Stat. 359.

Approved November 6, 1966.
