AN ACT

For the relief of Chief Warrant Officer Glen Zeigler, United States Navy (retired).

CWO Glen Zeigler.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Chief Warrant Officer Glen Zeigler, United States Navy (retired), of Bremerton, Washington, is hereby relieved of all liability to repay to the United States the sum of $8,111.42, representing the amount paid him as salary for the period from September 9, 1963, through November 30, 1964, while he was employed at the United States Naval Torpedo Station, Keyport, Washington, in violation of section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (28 Stat. 205), which prohibited the employment of certain retired military officers in Federal civilian positions, the said Glen Zeigler having been advised by Government personnel that his employment was legal. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officers of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

78 Stat. 492.
5 USC 62.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Glen Zeigler, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 3. For pay purposes, including retirement and leave, the period from September 9, 1963, through November 30, 1964, shall be deemed to be creditable service.

Approved November 6, 1966.
