Public Law 90-11

AN ACT

April 22, 1967
[S. 1177]

To provide for the disposition of a judgment against the United States recovered by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of Indians of the Flathead Reservation in Montana.

Confederated Salish and Kootenai Indians. Judgment funds.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the unexpended balance of funds on deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of Indians of the Flathead Reservation that were appropriated by the Act of October 27, 1966 (80 Stat. 1065), to pay a judgment by the Indian Claims Commission in docket numbered 61, and the interest thereon, less payment of attorneys fees and expenses, may be invested, expended, or advanced for any purpose that is authorized by the tribal governing body and approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Any part of such funds that may be distributed to the members of the tribes shall not be subject to Federal or State income taxes.

Approved April 22, 1967.

JOINT RESOLUTION

April 27, 1967
[S. J. Res. 49]

To designate April 28–29, 1967, as "Rush-Bagot Agreement Days".

8 Stat. 231.

Whereas the Rush-Bagot Agreement was signed on April 28–29, 1817, providing for naval disarmament between Canada and the United States along the Great Lakes and Lake Champlain; and

Whereas this agreement is still in existence one hundred and fifty years later, making it the oldest arms limitation treaty in effect in the world today; and

Whereas Canada and the United States share the longest unfortified boundary in the world as a result of such agreement; and

Whereas the commemoration of the signing of such agreement would serve as a reminder of the lasting friendship between Canada and the United States: Now, therefore, be it

Rush-Bagot Agreement Days. Proclamation.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating April 28–29, 1967, as "Rush-Bagot Agreement Days" and inviting the Governors of the several States and the chief officials of local governments and the people of the United States to observe such days with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Approved April 27, 1967.
