able reallocation of reservoir storage capacities among the purposes served by the project as may be necessary due to sedimentation, subject, if the project is then operated by the United States, to payment to the United States of a reasonable annual charge to cover operation and maintenance costs and a fair share of administrative costs applicable to the project.

(c) Expenditures for the Palmetto Bend project may be made without regard to the soil survey and land classification requirements of the Interior Department Appropriation Act of 1954 (67 Stat. 266).

43 USC 390a.

Fish and wildlife resources and recreation.

SEC. 4. The conservation and development of the fish and wildlife resources and the enhancement of recreation opportunities in connection with the Palmetto Bend project shall be in accordance with the Federal Water Project Recreation Act (79 Stat. 213).

16 USC 460l-12 note.

Appropriation.

SEC. 5. There is authorized to be appropriated for construction of the first stage of the Palmetto Bend reclamation project the sum of $34,100,000 (January 1967 prices), plus or minus such amounts, if any, as may be justified by reason of ordinary fluctuations in construction costs as indicated by engineering cost indexes applicable to the type of construction involved herein. There are also authorized to be appropriated such additional sums as may be required for the operation and maintenance of the first stage of the project.

Appropriation.

SEC. 6. There is authorized to be appropriated for the acquisition of lands for the second stage of the Palmetto Bend reclamation project the sum of $2,700,000. If, within twenty years after the initial operation of stage 1 of the project, Congress has not authorized construction of stage 2, the lands acquired pursuant to this section shall be utilized or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of section 3(b)(2) of the Federal Water Project Recreation Act (Act of July 9, 1965, 79 Stat. 214; 16 U.S.C. 4601–14(b)(2)).

[H. R. 19831]

AN ACT

To provide funds on behalf of a grateful nation in honor of Dwight David Eisenhower, thirty-fourth President of the United States, to be used in support of construction of educational facilities at Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls, New York, as a distinguished and permanent living memorial to his life and deeds.

Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls, N.Y.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall make grants to Eisenhower College of Seneca Falls, New York. Such grants shall be made on condition that the funds so granted will be used for the construction of educational facilities at such college, for the equipment for such facilities, and for the repair, renovation, and rehabilitation thereof (but not for routine and ordinary maintenance).

Appropriation.

SEC. 2. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary of the Treasury for making grants under this Act, amounts which in the aggregate will not exceed gifts, bequests, and devises, of money, securities, and other property, made to Eisenhower College after the date of enactment of this Act, except that the aggregate amount so appropriated shall not exceed $5,000,000. Funds appropriated under this Act shall remain available until expended.

Approved October 12, 1968.
