Compensation
rates, adjustment.

SEC. 2. (a) The rates of basic compensation of officers and members to whom the amendments made by the first section of this Act apply shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, each officer and member receiving basic compensation immediately prior to the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after October 1, 1967, at one of the scheduled service or longevity rates of a salary class or subclass of a salary class in the salary schedule in section 101 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958 (hereafter in this section referred to as the "salary schedule") shall receive a rate of basic compensation at the corresponding rate in effect on such day.

(2) Each officer and member receiving basic compensation immediately prior to the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after July 1, 1968, at one of the scheduled service or longevity rates of a salary class or subclass of a salary class in the salary schedule shall receive a rate of basic compensation at the corresponding rate in effect on such day.

(b) Initial advancement to longevity steps shall be made, as of the effective date of this Act, in the following manner:

Longevity step increases.

(1) An officer or member who was serving in salary class 1 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 10 but less than 13 years of service as a private shall be advanced to longevity step A in such salary class and such service shall be credited to him for advancement to longevity step B in such salary class under section 401 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958.

Post, p. 144.

(2) An officer or member who was serving in salary class 1 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 13 but less than 16 years of service as a private shall be advanced to longevity step B in such salary class and such service shall be credited to him for advancement to longevity step C in such salary class under section 401 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958.

(3) An officer or member who was serving in salary class 1 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 16 years of service as a private shall be advanced to longevity step C in such salary class.

(4) An officer or member who was serving in service step 4 of salary class 2, 3, or 4 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 156 but less than 208 calendar weeks of continuous active service in such step in such salary class shall be advanced to longevity step A in such salary class and such service shall be credited to him for advancement to longevity step B in such salary class under section 401 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958.

(5) An officer or member who was serving in longevity step 7 of salary class 2, 3, or 4 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 156 but less than 208 calendar weeks of continuous active service in such step in such salary class shall be advanced to longevity step B in such salary class and such service shall be credited to him for advancement to longevity step C in such salary class under section 401 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958.

(6) An officer or member who was serving in longevity step 8 of salary class 2, 3, or 4 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 156 calendar weeks of continuous active service in such step in such salary class shall be advanced to longevity step C in such salary class.

(7) An officer or member who was serving in service step 4 of salary class 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 156 but less than 208 calendar weeks of continuous active service in such step in such salary class shall be advanced to longevity step A in such salary class and such service shall be credited to him for advancement to longevity step B in such salary class under section 401 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958.

(8) An officer or member who was serving in longevity step 7 of salary class 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9 immediately prior to such date and who on such date had completed at least 156 calendar weeks of continuous active service in such step in such salary class shall be advanced to longevity step B in such salary class.

Each such officer or member shall receive the appropriate scheduled rate of basic compensation for the longevity step to which he was advanced under this subsection. In computing the service of an officer or member for purposes of this subsection, only periods of satisfactory service as an officer or member and periods of satisfactory service in the Armed Forces of the United States shall be included.

SEC. 3. Section 401 (a) of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958 (D.C. Code, sec. 4-832(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 401. (a) In recognition of long and faithful service, each officer and member, except the Chief of Police and Fire Chief, shall receive an amount (to be known as a longevity step increase) in addition to the rate of compensation prescribed in the salary schedule in section 101 for the maximum scheduled service step in the subclass of the salary class in which he is serving, or for the salary class in which he is serving if there are no subclasses in his salary class, for each 156 calendar weeks of continuous service completed by him following the effective date of this subsection at such maximum rate or at a rate in excess thereof, without change to a higher salary class, subject to all of the following conditions:

"(1) No officer or member shall receive more than one longevity step increase for any 156 calendar weeks of continuing service, and in order to be eligible therefor he shall have a current performance rating of 'satisfactory' or better.

"(2) Not more than three successive longevity step increases may be granted to any officer or member in salary classes 1 through 4, nor more than two successive longevity step increases may be granted to any officer or member in salary classes 5 through 9.

"(3) In the case of officers or members serving in salary class 1, each longevity step increase shall be equal to the increment between service step 4 and service step 5. In the case of officers or members serving in the other salary classes, each longevity step increase shall be equal to one step increase of the salary class or subclass of a salary class in which the officer or member is serving.

"(4) Each longevity step increase shall begin on the first day of the first pay period following completion of each 156 weeks."

SEC. 4. The Commissioner of the District of Columbia (or his delegate) may not as a part of any reorganization of the Metropolitan Police force or through any other administrative action—

(1) change the title of the positions of Detective and Detective Sergeant in salary classes 3 and 4, respectively, of the salary schedule contained in section 101 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958 (D.C. Code, sec. 4-823),

(2) change the job description or duties of such positions as in effect on the effective date of this Act, or

(3) deny any individual serving in the position of Detective on the effective date of this Act reasonable opportunities to advance to the position of Detective Sergeant, or transfer such individual without his consent to any other position, so long as any individual serving in the position of Detective on the effective date of this Act is serving in such position.

SEC. 5. Any officer or member of the Metropolitan Police force, the White House Police force, the United States Park Police force, or the Fire Department of the District of Columbia who—

(2) was placed on a list of individuals eligible for a permanent promotion to such position,

(3) was assigned to serve in such position on an "acting" basis, and

(4) on January 1, 1968, had served at least 5 years in such position on such basis, shall be given a permanent promotion, as of the effective date of this Act, to such position without the administration of any other written examination.

SEC. 6. The second paragraph under the center heading "METROPOLITAN POLICE" in the first section of the Act of August 31, 1918 (D.C. Code, sec. 4-105), is amended to read as follows:

"No person shall receive a permanent appointment who has not served the required probationary period, but the service during probation shall be deemed to be service in the uniformed force if succeeded by a permanent appointment, and as such shall be included and counted in determining eligibility for advancement, promotion, retirement, and pension in accordance with existing law. If at any time during the period of probation, the conduct or capacity of the probationer is determined by the Commissioner of the District of Columbia, or his designated agent, to be unsatisfactory, the probationer shall be separated from the service after advance written notification of the reasons for and the effective date of the separation. The retention of the probationer in the service after satisfactory completion of the probationary period shall be equivalent to a permanent appointment therein."

SEC. 7. (a) Retroactive compensation or salary shall be paid by reason of this Act only in the case of an individual in the service of the District of Columbia government or of the United States (including service in the Armed Forces of the United States) on the date of enactment of this Act, except that such retroactive compensation or salary shall be paid (1) to an officer or member of the Metropolitan Police force, the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, the United States Park Police force, or the White House Police force, who retired during the period beginning on the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after October 1, 1967, and ending on the date of enactment of this Act, for services rendered during such period, and (2) in accordance with the provisions of subchapter VIII of chapter 55 of title 5, United States Code (relating to settlement of accounts of deceased employees), for services rendered during the period beginning on the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after October 1, 1967, and ending on the date of enactment of this Act, by an officer or member who dies during such period.

(b) For the purposes of this section, service in the Armed Forces of the United States, in the case of an individual relieved from training and service in the Armed Forces of the United States or discharged from hospitalization following such training and service, shall include the period provided by law for the mandatory restoration of such individual to a position in or under the Federal Government or the municipal government of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 8. For the purpose of determining the amount of insurance for which an officer or member is eligible under the provisions of chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code (relating to Government employees group life insurance), all changes in rates of compensation or salary which result from the enactment of this Act shall be held and considered to be effective as of the date of enactment of this Act.

§ 102. Findings and declaration of purpose

The Congress finds that economic stabilization would be enhanced and the competition among the various financial institutions and other firms engaged in the extension of consumer credit would be strengthened by the informed use of credit. The informed use of credit results from an awareness of the cost thereof by consumers. It is the purpose of this title to assure a meaningful disclosure of credit terms so that the consumer will be able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to him and avoid the uninformed use of credit.
