[S. 1227]

To provide that a judgment or decree of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia shall not constitute a lien until filed and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

D.C., recording of liens.

77 Stat. 522;
80 Stat. 1177.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the first sentence of subsection (a) of section 15-101 of the District of Columbia Code is amended to read as follows:

“Except as provided by subsection (b) of this section, every final judgment or final decree for the payment of money rendered in the—

“(1) United States District Court for the District of Columbia; or

“(2) District of Columbia Court of General Sessions—

when filed and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, is enforceable, by execution issued thereon, for the period of twelve years only from the date when an execution might first be issued thereon, or from the date of the last order of revival thereof.”

SEC. 2. (a) Subsection (a) of section 15-102 of the District of Columbia Code is amended to read as follows:

“(a) Each—

“(1) final judgment or decree for the payment of money rendered in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, from the date such judgment or decree is filed and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, and

“(2) recognizance taken by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, from the date the entry or order of forfeiture of such recognizance is filed and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, shall constitute a lien on all the freehold and leasehold estates, legal and equitable, of the defendants bound by such judgment, decree, or recognizance, in any land, tenements, or hereditaments in the District of Columbia, whether the estates are in possession or are reversions or remainders, vested or contingent. Such liens on equitable interests may be enforced only by an action to foreclose.”

SEC. 3. Section 15-311 of the District of Columbia Code is amended to read as follows:

“§ 15-311. Property subject to levy

“The writ of fieri facias may be levied on all goods and chattels of the debtor not exempt from execution, and upon money, bills, checks, promissory notes, or bonds, or certificates of stock in corporations owned by the debtor, and upon his money in the hands of the marshal or his deputy or other officer or person charged with the execution of the writ. A writ of fieri facias issued from the United States District

AN ACT

To supplement the purposes of the Public Buildings Act of 1959 (73 Stat. 479), by authorizing agreements and leases with respect to certain properties in the District of Columbia, for the purpose of a national visitor center, and for other purposes.

March 12, 1968
[H. R. 12603]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "National Visitor Center Facilities Act of 1968".

National Visitor Center Facilities
Act of 1968.

TITLE I—NATIONAL VISITOR CENTER

SEC. 101. The Secretary of the Interior (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "Secretary"), in consultation with the Administrator of General Services (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "Administrator"), is authorized to negotiate and enter into agreements and leases with The Washington Terminal Company, its successors or assigns (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "Company"), the owner of the property in the District of Columbia known as Union Station, for use of all or a part of such property for a national visitor center to be known as the National Visitor Center and a parking facility in connection therewith.

SEC. 102. (a) The agreements and leases authorized by section 101 of this Act shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

Agreements and leases, conditions.

(1) the Company shall agree to make such alterations of the Union Station Building as the Secretary determines necessary to provide adequate facilities for visitors, which facilities, including the parking facility under paragraph (3), shall be representative of the highest standards of excellence of design and function;

(2) the lease of the Union Station Building shall commence on a date to be mutually agreed upon contingent upon when such facilities are available for public use, and shall not be for a term of more than twenty-five years;

(3) the Company, in consultation with the Secretary, shall construct a parking facility, including necessary approaches and ramps, to accommodate as nearly as possible four thousand motor vehicles in the air space northerly of and adjacent to the existing Union Station Building, and such facility shall, upon completion, be leased to the United States for a term not to exceed twenty-five years;

(4) the Company shall, and it is hereby authorized to, construct a new railroad passenger station in the area beneath or adjacent to the parking facility referred to in paragraph (3);
