expenses of such House in accordance with travel regulations of that House. If the case does not involve such an activity, the department, agency, or independent establishment of the United States on whose behalf he is so testifying or producing records shall pay to the employee his travel expenses out of appropriations otherwise available, and in accordance with regulation applicable, to that department, agency, or independent establishment for the payment of travel expenses.

(2) An employee summoned (and permitted to respond to such summons by the House of the Congress disbursing his pay), or assigned by such House, to testify in his official capacity or produce official records on behalf of a party other than the United States, is entitled to travel expenses, unless any travel expenses are paid to the employee for his appearance by the court, authority, or party which caused him to be summoned.

(f) The Committee on Rules and Administration of the Senate and the Committee on House Administration of the House of Representatives are authorized to prescribe, for employees of their respective Houses, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Rules, authorization.

(g) No provision of this section shall be construed to confer the consent of either House of the Congress to the production of official records of that House or to testimony by an employee of that House concerning activities related to his employment.

[S. 4187]

To authorize the Secretary of the Army to convey certain lands at Fort Ruger Military Reservation, Hawaii, to the State of Hawaii in exchange for certain other lands.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Army, or his designee, is hereby authorized to convey to the State of Hawaii, subject to the terms and conditions hereafter stated, and to such other terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Army, or his designee, shall deem to be in the public interest, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to certain lands, with the improvements thereon, within the Fort Ruger Military Reservation, Hawaii, as described in section 3 of this Act. Fort Ruger Military Reservation, Hawaii. Land exchange.

SEC. 2. In consideration for the conveyance by the United States of the aforesaid property, the State of Hawaii shall convey, or provide for the conveyance, to the United States of certain lands, described in section 3 of this Act, acceptable to the Secretary of the Army, or his designee, as replacement land for use as military family housing sites or other purposes in connection with the Fort Shafter-Tripler Army Hospital area, Oahu, Hawaii, and shall, at its sole expense, perform on this replacement land certain site preparations which will, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Army, or his designee, equal in cost the dollar value difference between the appraised fair market value of the property being conveyed to the State and the appraised fair market value of the land being conveyed to the United States. The site preparation shall be in accordance with plans and specifications to be approved by the Secretary of the Army, or his designee. Replacement land. Site preparation.

SEC. 3. The lands authorized to be exchanged and referred to in sections 1 and 2 of this Act are located on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, Land description.

and are as generally depicted on maps on file in the Office of the Pacific Ocean Division Engineer, Honolulu, Hawaii. The lands to be conveyed by the United States comprise approximately fifty-seven acres with the improvements thereon; the replacement lands to be acquired by the United States comprise a minimum of approximately two hundred and fifty-nine acres situated adjacent to the Tripler Army Hospital Reservation. The exact description and acreages are to be determined by accurate surveys as mutually agreed upon between the State of Hawaii and the Secretary of the Army, or his designee.

SEC. 4. The lands conveyed to the United States, as described in section 3 of this Act, shall become a part of the Tripler Army Hospital Reservation and be administered by the Department of the Army.

Cost.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the cost of the lands to be acquired by the United States, as described in section 3 of this Act, and the cost of the site preparation and installation of utilities borne by the State of Hawaii, as provided herein, shall not be considered in arriving at the average cost of any family housing units or the cost of any single family housing unit to be constructed on the property.
