

Public Law 91-313

AN ACT

To amend section 213 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and for other purposes.

July 10, 1970
[H. R. 14118]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 213 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (66 Stat. 188; 8 U.S.C. 1183) be amended to read as follows:

Immigration and Nationality Act, amendments.

“ADMISSION OF CERTAIN ALIENS ON GIVING BOND

“SEC. 213. An alien excludable under paragraph (7) or (15) of section 212(a) may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in the discretion of the Attorney General upon the giving of a suitable and proper bond or undertaking approved by the Attorney General, in such amount and containing such conditions as he may prescribe, to the United States, and to all States, territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof holding the United States and all States, territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof harmless against such alien becoming a public charge. Such bond or undertaking shall terminate upon the permanent departure from the United States, the naturalization, or the death of such alien, and any sums or other security held to secure performance thereof, except to the extent forfeited for violation of the terms thereof, shall be returned to the person by whom furnished, or to his legal representatives. Suit may be brought thereon in the name and by the proper law officers of the United States for the use of the United States, or of any State, territory, district, county, town, or municipality in which such alien becomes a public charge.”

8 USC 1182.

Termination.

SEC. 2. The Immigration and Nationality Act (66 Stat. 163; 8 U.S.C. 1101), as amended, is further amended by adding at the end of title II the following additional section:

“DEPOSIT OF AND INTEREST ON CASH RECEIVED TO SECURE IMMIGRATION BONDS

“SEC. 293. (a) Cash received by the Attorney General as security on an immigration bond shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States in trust for the obligor on the bond, and shall bear interest payable at a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, except that in no case shall the interest rate exceed 3 per centum per annum. Such interest shall accrue from date of deposit occurring after April 27, 1966, to and including date of withdrawal or date of breach of the immigration bond, whichever occurs first: Provided, That cash received by the Attorney General as security on an immigration bond, and deposited by him in the postal savings system prior to discontinuance of the system, shall accrue interest as provided in this section from the date such cash ceased to accrue interest under the system. Appropriations to the Treasury Department for interest on uninvested funds shall be available for payment of said interest.

Interest rate.

“(b) The interest accruing on cash received by the Attorney General as security on an immigration bond shall be subject to the same disposition as prescribed for the principal cash, except that interest accruing to the date of breach of the immigration bond shall be paid to the obligor on the bond.”

Accruals.

66 Stat. 163.
8 USC 1101
note.

SEC. 3. (a) The table of contents of the Immigration and Nationality Act, is amended by changing the citation to section 213 to read as follows:

"Sec. 213. Admission of certain aliens on giving bond."

(b) The table of contents of the Immigration and Nationality Act, is further amended by adding after the reference to the following:

"Sec. 292. Right to Counsel."

"Sec. 293. Deposit of and interest on cash received to secure immigration bonds."

AN ACT

July 10, 1970
[H. R. 12941]

To authorize the release of four million one hundred eighty thousand pounds of cadmium from the national stockpile and the supplemental stockpile.

Cadmium, Disposal.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of General Services is hereby authorized to dispose of approximately four million one hundred eighty thousand pounds of cadmium now held in the national stockpile established pursuant to the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act (50 U.S.C. 98-98h) and the supplemental stockpile established pursuant to section 104(b) of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 456, as amended by 73 Stat. 607). Such disposition may be made without regard to the requirements of section 3 of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act: Provided, That the time and method of disposition shall be fixed with due regard to the protection of the United States against avoidable loss and the protection of producers, processors, and consumers against avoidable disruption of their usual markets.

60 Stat. 596.

7 USC 1704.

Bids.

SEC. 2. (a) Disposals of the material covered by this Act may be made only after publicly advertising for bids, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section or as otherwise authorized by law. All bids may be rejected when it is in the public interest to do so.

Exemptions.

(b) The material covered by this Act may be disposed of without advertising for bids if—

(1) the material is to be transferred to an agency of the United States;

(2) the Administrator determines that methods of disposal other than by advertising are necessary to protect the United States against avoidable loss or to protect producers, processors, and consumers against avoidable disruption of their usual markets; or

(3) sales are to be made pursuant to requests received from other agencies of the United States in furtherance of authorized program objectives of such agencies.

Approved July 10, 1970.
