Public Law 91-423

AN ACT

September 26, 1970
[S. 2763]

To allow the purchase of additional systems and equipment for passenger motor vehicles over and above the statutory price limitation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That paragraph (1) of subsection (c) of section 5 of the Act of July 16, 1914, as amended (31 U.S.C. 638a), is hereby amended to read as follows: Passenger motor vehicles. Purchase of additional equipment. 60 Stat. 810.

"(1) to purchase any passenger motor vehicle (exclusive of buses and ambulances), at a cost, completely equipped for operation, and including the value of any vehicle exchanged, in excess of the maximum price therefor, if any, established pursuant to law by a Government agency and in no event more than such amount as may be specified in an appropriation or other Act, which shall be in addition to the amount required for transportation. A passenger motor vehicle shall be deemed completely equipped for operation if it includes the systems and equipment which the Administrator of General Services finds are customarily incorporated into a standard passenger motor vehicle completely equipped for ordinary operation. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, additional systems or equipment may be purchased whenever the Administrator finds it appropriate. The price of such additional systems or equipment shall not be considered in determining whether the cost of a passenger motor vehicle is within any maximum price otherwise established by law;". Price limitation, exception.

Approved September 26, 1970.
