AN ACT

For the relief of Clinton M. Hoose.

March 9, 1972
[H. R. 1824]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Clinton M. Hoose, of Alexandria, Virginia, the sum of $3,634.64 in full settlement of all his claims against the United States arising in connection with a reduction in his salary for the period beginning October 1, 1962, and ending October 30, 1964, while he was a contract employee of the Central Intelligence Agency. The said Clinton M. Hoose agreed to such a reduction in salary because of certain provisions of Federal law relating to restrictions on the concurrent receipt of civilian compensation and military retired pay, which provisions were later rendered retroactively inapplicable to certain retired officers by section 201(g) of the Dual Compensation Act of 1964.

Clinton M. Hoose.

78 Stat. 484.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in the first section of this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim,
