to his retirement on May 30, 1968, such payments having been made as a result of administrative error which occurred without fault on his part and without his knowledge. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Bobby R. Mullins, an amount equal to the aggregate of any amounts already paid by him, or withheld from any sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

For the relief of the estate of Amos E. Norby.

October 18, 1972
[H. R. 2118]

Amos E. Norby, estate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the effective date of the separate maintenance allowance granted to Amos E. Norby, in connection with his employment with the United States Army Engineer Group, Tokashiki Island, Kerama Islands, is hereby changed from February 20, 1964, to March 11, 1962, the date of his assignment to duty on Tokashiki Island. The estate of the said Amos E. Norby shall be paid, out of applicable appropriations available for payment of separate maintenance allowances, the amount of the separation allowance to which he would have been entitled from and after March 11, 1962, to February 20, 1964, in connection with his assignment to duty on Tokashiki Island, if such allowance had originally been granted on March 11, 1962.

Approved October 18, 1972.
