AN ACT

December 8, 1973
[H. R. 3044]

For the relief of James Evans, publisher of the Colfax County Press, and Morris Odvarka.

James Evans and Morris Odvarka.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That James Evans, publisher of the Colfax County Press, a newspaper published in Clarkson, Nebraska, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,342.48, representing the amount of a postage deficiency assessed against the said James Evans as a result of the mailing of certain supplemental publications, together with a regular issue of the Colfax County Press, at second-class rather than third-class postage rates, such assessment having been made after the said James Evans had received and relied upon an oral ruling by the Postmaster at Clarkson, Nebraska, that the mailing of such supplemental publications with the newspaper would be permissible under the newspaper's second-class mail permit.

SEC. 2. That on such terms as it deems just, the United States Postal Service is authorized to compromise, release, or discharge in whole or in part the liability of Morris Odvarka, postmaster at the Clarkson, Nebraska, post office, for the amount of the postal deficiency charged against his account by reason of the facts referred to in the first section of this Act.

Approved December 8, 1973.
