Public Law 93-168
AN ACT
To authorize appropriations for the United States Information Agency.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “United States Information Agency Appropriations Authorization Act of 1973”.

Sec. 2. (a) There are authorized to be appropriated for the United States Information Agency for fiscal year 1974, to carry out international informational activities and programs under the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, and Reorganization Plan Numbered 8 of 1953, and other purposes authorized by law, the following amounts:

(1) $194,839,000 for “Salaries and expenses” and “Salaries and expenses (special foreign currency program)”, except that so much of such amount as may be appropriated for “Salaries and expenses (special foreign currency program)” may be appropriated without fiscal year limitation;

(2) $5,125,000 for “Special international exhibitions” and “Special international exhibitions (special foreign currency program)”, of which not to exceed $1,000,000 shall be available solely for the Eighth Series of Traveling Exhibitions in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; and

(3) $1,000,000 for “Acquisition and construction of radio facilities”.

Amounts appropriated under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection are authorized to remain available until expended.

(b) In addition to amounts authorized by subsection (a) of this section, there are authorized to be appropriated without fiscal year limitation for the United States Information Agency for the fiscal year 1974 the following additional or supplemental amounts:

(1) not to exceed $7,200,000 for increases in salary, pay, retirement, or other employee benefits authorized by law; and

(2) not exceed $7,450,000 for additional overseas costs resulting from the devaluation of the dollar.

Sec. 3. Section 701 of the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 is amended to read as follows:

"PRIOR AUTHORIZATION BY CONGRESS"

"Sec. 701. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law enacted before the date of enactment of the United States Information Agency Appropriation Authorization Act of 1973, no money appropriated to carry out this Act shall be available for obligation or expenditure—

"(1) unless the appropriation thereof has been previously authorized by law; or

"(2) in excess of an amount previously prescribed by law.

"(b) To the extent that legislation enacted after the making of an appropriation to carry out this Act authorizes the obligation or expenditure thereof, the limitation contained in subsection (a) shall have no effect.

"(c) The provisions of this section shall not be superseded except by a provision of law enacted after the date of enactment of the United States Information Agency Appropriation Authorization Act of 1973, which specifically repeals, modifies, or supersedes the provisions of this section."
“(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply with respect to appropriations made available under the joint resolution entitled “Joint resolution making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1974, and for other purposes”, approved July 1, 1973, and any provision of law specifically amending such joint resolution enacted through October 16, 1973.”

Sec. 4. The United States Information Agency shall, upon request by Little League Baseball, Incorporated, authorize the purchase by such corporation of copies of the film “Summer Fever”, produced by such agency in 1972 depicting events in Little League Baseball in the United States. Except as otherwise provided by section 501 of the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, Little League Baseball, Incorporated, shall have exclusive rights to distribute such film for viewing within the United States in furtherance of the object and purposes of such corporation as set forth in section 3 of the Act entitled “An Act to incorporate the Little League Baseball, Incorporated”, approved July 16, 1964 (78 Stat. 325).

Public Law 93-169

AN ACT

To amend title 10, United States Code, to remove the four-year limitation on additional active duty that a nonregular officer of the Army or Air Force may be required to perform on completion of training at an educational institution.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections 4301 (b) and 9301(b) of title 10, United States Code, are each amended by striking out “but not longer than four years” in the sentence.

Public Law 93-170

AN ACT

To amend title 37, United States Code, to provide entitlement to round trip transportation to the home port for a member of the uniformed services on permanent duty aboard a ship being inactivated away from home port whose dependents are residing at the home port.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That chapter 7 of title 37, United States Code, is amended as follows:

(1) The text of section 406b is amended by inserting “or inactivated” after “overhauled” and “or inactivation” after “overhaul” wherever they appear.

(2) The catchline of section 406b is amended by inserting “or inactivating” after “overhauling”, and by making a similar change in the analysis of chapter 7.
