

Private Law 94-5
94th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Raymond Monroe.

July 7, 1975

[H.R. 3382]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, on such terms as it deems just, the United States Postal Service is authorized to compromise, release, or discharge in whole or in part the liability of Raymond Monroe of Overland Park, Kansas, to the United States in the amount of $5,445, representing the loss resulting from his erroneous setting of a postage meter on January 3, 1964, as a clerk for the Post Office Department.

Raymond
Monroe.

Approved July 7, 1975.
