

CHAP. LXXXI. — An Act for the Relief of John Chasseaud, the Consul of the United States for Syria and Palestine. Aug. 3, 1846.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to pay to John Chasseaud, consul of the United States for Syria and Palestine, whatever amount there may be due said Chasseaud for salary while acting as consul aforesaid, and which the Secretary of the Treasury has no authority in law to pay, in consequence of a failure on the part of said Chasseaud to furnish the department of state with the bond and two sureties required by law, although he performed the duties of consul, and was recognized as such by the government of the United States.

Amount due for salary to be paid to John Chasseaud.

APPROVED, August 3, 1846.

CHAP. LXXXIII. — An Act for the Relief of James Low. Aug. 4, 1846

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy be, and he is hereby, directed to place the name of James Low on the pension roll of invalid pensioners, at the rate of six dollars per month, commencing on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

Pension of $6 per month allowed to James Low.

APPROVED, August 4, 1846.

CHAP. LXXXVI. — An Act to provide for the final Settlement of the Accounts of John Crowell, late Agent for the Creek Indians. Aug. 6, 1846.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That nothing in the act of the third of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, entitled "An Act making Appropriations for the civil and diplomatic Expenses of the Government for the Year ending the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and forty-six, and for other Purposes," shall be construed as a bar to the settlement of the accounts of John Crowell, late agent of the Creek nation of Indians; and for the payment of any sum or sums of money, if any, found due to the said Crowell, or to his heirs or legal representatives, by the proper accounting officers, the necessary amount is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Nothing in act of 1845, ch. 71, to be construed as a bar to settlement of the accounts of John Crowell.

Appropriation.

APPROVED, August, 6, 1846.
