

CHAP. CXIX. — An Act for the Relief of Captain James Pennoyer.

March 3, 1847.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to make, or cause to be made, a full and accurate estimate of the value of the United States brig Porpoise, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, together with that of all the property of every description on board of her at and before the twelfth day of November, eighteen hundred and thirty-six; and, the same being ascertained, to pay over the one equal half part of such gross amount to the said Captain James Pennoyer, as a full and complete compensation for his services in saving the said brig Porpoise, her officers, and crew; and that the said sum be paid out [of] any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, March 3, 1847.

Value of the United States brig Porpoise, her tackle, &c., to be estimated, and one half part of gross amount to be paid Captain Pennoyer, as compensation for saving her, her officers, and crew.

CHAP. CXX. — An Act for the Relief of Joseph Gideon.

March 3, 1847.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be and is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five hundred and ninety-seven dollars and twenty-six cents, to be paid to Joseph Gideon, of the city of New York, or his legal representative, in full payment for his services as an acting purser on board the United States brig Porpoise, from the twenty-seventh of April to the thirtieth of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

APPROVED, March 3, 1847.

Joseph Gideon to be paid $597 26 for his services as acting purser on board the United States brig Porpoise.

CHAP. CXXI. — An Act for the Relief of Job Hawkins.

March 3, 1847.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be authorized, and he is hereby required, to place Job Hawkins, of the State of Massachusetts, on the roll of revolutionary pensioners, in conformity with the act of the seventh day of June, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, allowing pensions to the surviving officers and soldiers of the revolution; and that the pension hereby allowed to him be paid as other pensions are, and so as to include any amount which was due to him when he was dropped from the rolls on the fourth of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, at which time the pension now allowed is to commence.

APPROVED, March 3, 1847.

Job Hawkins to be placed on the revolutionary pension roll.
1832, ch. 126.
