Public Law 94–218
94th Congress

An Act

To make the film "Wilma Rudolph Olympic Champion", which was produced by the United States Information Agency, available for certain limited use within the United States in conjunction with promotion of the 1976 Olympic Games.

Feb. 27, 1976
[H.R. 6949]

"Wilma Rudolph Olympic Champion", film. U.S. promotion of 1976 Olympic Games.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the second sentence of section 501 of the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 (22 U.S.C. 1461), the Director of the United States Information Agency shall, upon satisfaction of the conditions established by section 2 of this Act, make available to Cappy Productions, Incorporated, of New York, New York, a master copy of the film entitled "Wilma Rudolph Olympic Champion", produced in 1961 by the United States Information Agency, in order that portions of such film may be used in a television program entitled "Women Gold Medal Winners" which is being produced by Cappy Productions, Incorporated, and which will be shown in the United States and elsewhere to promote the 1976 Olympic Games.

SEC. 2. The Director of the United States Information Agency may not make available to Cappy Productions, Incorporated, a master copy of the film entitled "Wilma Rudolph Olympic Champion" unless—

(1) Cappy Productions, Incorporated, pays to the United States the amount necessary to reimburse the United States for its expenditures in connection with the production of such film; and

(2) the Director receives assurances satisfactory to him that—

(A) such film will be used solely for purposes of the television program described in the first section of this Act, and

(B) such television program will be used solely to promote the 1976 Olympic Games.

Approved February 27, 1976.
