Public Law 94-494
94th Congress

Joint Resolution

Oct. 14, 1976
[H.J. Res. 1119]

To provide for the convening of the first session of the Ninety-fifth Congress.

95th Congress.
First session.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the first regular session of the Ninety-fifth Congress shall begin at 2 o'clock post meridiem on Tuesday, January 4, 1977.

Approved October 14, 1976

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY:

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, Vol. 122 (1976):
Oct. 1, considered and passed House and Senate.

AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO